WHILE the question of changing the manner of voting back to the good old viva voce system is not a party question, the Republicans have instructed every voter that they can command to vote against the change. They know that their only hope of carrying an election lies in the secret ballot system, when men or rather mice, say they will vote one way and then vote another, and in stuffing ballot boxes and changing the result, and they will vote for it to a man. The Democrats are somewhat divided on the question, and while no especial interest has developed in it, enough has been learned to show that a large majority of them favor the old system. It is time, however, that they were asserting themselves and beginning a campaign of education. We want a return to first principles, to honest elections and honest expressions. When a voter expresses his choice by the word of mouth and sees his vote recorded as cast, there is little room for juggling the returns. The secret ballot is the hobby of those who are afraid to express themselves publicly and such are worthy of little consideration. Let us wipe it from the constitution by a majority that will leave no doubt of the disgust it has engendered.

A DOCTOR who is evidently in the pay of cigarette manufacturers, says that the so-called little coffin nails are entirely harmless and that they are made the scape goat for crime and shame. He says that in a study and experience of many years he fails to find a single criminal act caused by the use of cigarettes which are not so harmful as tea or coffee. This celebrated nerve specialist, as he is referred to in the dispatches, is either honing for notoriety or lucre, probably both, as his theory is against all previous teaching.

THE following from the Louisville Times is calculated to shake one's confidence in preachers of a certain sect: "After spending the night at Victoria Hotel, Father McMahon accused Father Accen of stealing $110 from him. The money was recovered from the person of the accused. Both were intoxicated. They registered from New York but later said they were from Gettysburg. The hotel proprietor swore out a warrant against the accused priest."

DEMOCRATS, the fight is on. Another nomination has been made and more may follow. Organize and be ready to meet the enemy at any game they may attempt to play. Lincoln county needs no republican officers and if democrats do their duty she will have none.

THE Somerset Mountaineer is encroaching on our rights. The INTERIOR JOURNAL is known far and wide as the "cheapest and best" and the Mountaineer has no right whatever, to use our motto in connection with that paper.

It turns out that W. Owen McIntyre did not buy the Harrodsburg Herald, but has engaged in the insurance business instead. We thought Editors Pulliam and Hutton had too good a thing in the Herald to dispose of it.

Wix Howard, for years a merchant at Crab Orchard, now residing at London, wants to represent Laurel and Rockcastle in the General Assembly. Rhode Island democrats nominated former Gov. L. F. C. Garvin for Governor and adopted a platform favoring tariff revision and railway rate regulation.

President Roosevelt and Czar Nicholas have exchanged memoranda showing perfect co-operation in bringing about a second peace conference at The Hague.

Armitage Matthews, secretary of the New York county republican committee, committed suicide by leaping from a window rather than face indictments for embezzlement.

Congressman John Newton Williamson, of Oregon, convicted of conspiracy to defraud the United States government of its public domain, was sentenced to 10 months' imprisonment.

The court of appeals, in the case of M. B. Lucas, defeated candidate for the democratic nomination for jailer in Franklin county, held it had no power to compel a recount by the committee, however erroneous its action may be.

As an incident to the Whitaker-Renaker slander suit at Cynthiana, the Harrison County Democratic Committee has refused to accept the resignation of H. C. Duffy as chairman. Mr. Duffy will not be an independent candidate for State Senator.

To The Voters Of Lincoln County.

I have been selected by the republican executive committee as the republican candidate for sheriff. I accept the nomination and respectfully ask the support of the voters of Lincoln county. As to my qualifications to conduct the business of this important office I refer to my former record as sheriff. Respec't.

JOHN N. MENEFEE.

Stanford, Oct. 16, 1905.

Card From Mr. Swope.

I truly and gratefully thank my many republican friends who called upon me to make the race for sheriff of Lincoln county. I went before the committee last Saturday and made an honorable, upright and manly effort for the nomination, but the committee decided on Mr. J. N. Menefee to make the race. I will now drop into line and do all I can for my party. Very Respec't.

After an engagement of five years the marriage of Mr. Clement Earl Bower to Miss Anna Fish Gover was solemnized in Covington in the presence of a few relatives. A most impressive ceremony was said by Rev. J. W. Hagin in the parlors of his home. The bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gover, of this county. An accomplished, cultured and lovely christian woman, she will preside with grace and dignity in the home that awaits her coming. The groom is the son of Mr. C. T. Bower, one of the most prominent citizens of Lima, Ohio. He is a successful young business man of strict integrity and a member of the large and well-known manufacturing firm, "The Bower Roller Bearing Co.," of Dayton, Ohio.

The handsome rooms were profusely decorated in ferns and palms, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. S. Ellis. The bride was handsome in a dark green broad cloth going away gown with hat and gloves to match. The bride is an accomplished young lady and enjoys the admiration of a wide circle of friends in the city, while the bridegroom is a popular insurance man. A very large number of pretty and costly gifts were received. Only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present.
